Description

Rare farmhouse renovation project in the centre of Morzine This lovely Savoyard farmhouse sitting on a plot of 357 sqm in Morzine's old town is waiting for someone to bring it back to life. It has lots of rustic charm and offers a great opportunity for renovation and a world of hidden potential behind its worn-out exterior. The farmhouse features a range of areas for different purposes. Situated on the first floor, above the garage, is a three-bedroom apartment that offers a functional and straightforward layout. It comes equipped with a kitchen, a large living room, a pantry, a storage area, a utility room, a boiler room, and three spacious bedrooms. The second floor of the building is where the true magic happens, as it possesses an enchanting rustic quality that captures the imagination. The huge space is alive with vibrant energy, and one cannot help but be awestruck by the height and beautiful old beams. This expansive barn requires a full renovation. With its vast size, the space offers endless possibilities for creating a dream family home that surpasses expectations. The farmhouse needs significant restoration work, but the benefits of restoring it are priceless. The property boasts panoramic views of the valley that capture the essence of Morzine all the way up to Avoriaz. The apartment is very basic, yet can accommodate short-term stay while you sort out your plans. With some careful consideration, it can serve as your residence while the renovation work is underway. As the property is transformed, picture a future where the farmhouse's potential is fully realized—a spacious getaway extending over an area of approximately 300m², fusing historical charm with contemporary luxury.
